

OANA COCINDAU

Oana is an upcoming artist with roots in Romania, now living in Marbella. She says "I remember, this road for me began since childhood, analyzing every trice of existence, calling this a sweet coma."

She started painting after graduating architecture & design, putting her thoughts on canvases and then shared them on Facebook.

She challenged the traditional gallery route by selling solely through social media, her first sold painting went to Sydney - Australia; Oana says "I knew then that I have to grow as an artist, I can grow."

In 2017 Oana was declared the Second Best Selling Artist in Romania.

Oana is painting vibrant and powerful art which talks to you, it catches your attention within seconds and also brings elegance to the walls.

This amazing collection which goes under the name DARK VELVET: ANGELS AND DEMONS was produced exclusively for the exhibition at El Secreto de Baco.

The collection DARK VELVET includes more than twenty masterpieces and some of them are available here.

You can see more paintings and follow Oana on her Instagram account artofoana.

We are delighted to share Oana's collection on our walls.
